Minutes: A motion from Rowdy Cloward to approve the December 2019 minutes. Second by Connie Elison. The motion passed in favor unanimously.

Winterfest:

January 4, 2020: Family Game Night was held at Crossroads Senior Center. There were board games, pizza and donated fruit. It was not very well attended. Next year it won't be held so close to New Year's Eve.

The next Winterfest event is Aladdin Jr (RJHS) January 9, 10, 13

January 11th Events: Yoga at the Cynthia Center. Cris Sorsensen will lead. Leftover fruit from game night will be brought to yoga.

The swimming pool is offering a 40% discount for each Saturday of Winterfest.

Ice Skating and Sledding. Northeastern Counseling will provide hot chocolate and cookies. A Zamboni is being built for the ice skating rink. There will be no ice skate rentals. The porta potties have been arranged.

January 15-17: Union High basketball camp.

January 18 Events: Cross country skiing at the golf course. No rentals. A few sets of skis will be available to borrow. Rhett Gilley will be there from 10-12.

Paint Night at the Villa. 7-9 pm $25 or $40 per couple.

January 25 Events: Day of Dance at the Crossroads Senior Center. 9:30-12:30. $10, cash only. Local dance studios and BYU Ballroom will be teaching the classes. Heather Wilson is running the event.

BYU Ballroom concert 7 pm at RJHS. We need to provide lunch, dinner and snacks for 45. Lunch will be a deli tray and dinner will be pulled pork. Emily Graham will order the food from Stewarts. Those picking up the food will need to pay upfront and then request a reimbursement with Brent Fenn. The National Honors Society might be able to volunteer to collect money/pass out programs. Shannon Staker will check with them. Shannon Staker will order some banners. Everyone took posters to hang up around town.

Mayor Report: JR will be asking the City Council for a PARC budget. We will need to appoint a treasurer and a treasurer for each subcommittee. This will be added to the February agenda. If the committee earns money from an event, it will be put back into the PARC budget, not the general city budget. The new website is still in process. It will have a separate page for the PARC.

Recreation Subcommittee Report: Work continues to add a bike trail in Roosevelt. It will need to cross some private property.

Arts Subcommittee Report: Britney Fenn is now running the Missoula Children's theater for Roosevelt. It will take place this summer. It will cost $3500 plus $1000 for lodging. There are 25 music teachers that have requested the new Roosevelt library have a recital room.

Parks Subcommittee Report: There are plans underway to start a co-ed volleyball league. The details are still being worked out. They are having trouble securing a gym.

Motion by Wendy Nicholson for next meeting to be February 5, 2020 at 7 pm, second by Daniel Mauchley. Voting was unanimous in favor.

Motion to adjourn the meeting at 8:33 pm by Daniel Mauchley with a second by Preston Kadleck. The voting was unanimous in favor.
