CLIENT PREMISES EQUIPMENT: Spectra has available equipment that Client may purchase to obtain the IT Support service. Client may purchase its premises equipment from other providers. Spectra is not responsible for setup, or support of any equipment purchased and/or installed through a third party provider.

Title to equipment purchased from Spectra shall pass to Client upon payment in full of the sales price, including all applicable taxes. Client assumes the risk of loss or damage to the equipment upon delivery to Client's location. Any equipment provided by Spectra may be warrantied by the manufacturer. That is the only warranty provided by Spectra for the equipment and no other warranties, express or implied, apply to the equipment. During the term of the manufacturer's warranty period, Spectra will support, to the extent reasonably possible, the equipment for problems covered by the manufacturer's warranty. Once the warranty term period has expired, Spectra will no longer support problems with the equipment.

Client acknowledges that it must own the equipment that Spectra services. Client is responsible for implementing sufficient procedures and checkpoints to satisfy their particular requirements for accuracy of data input and output, and for maintaining a means external to Spectra for reconstruction and/or retrieval of any lost data. Client agrees to assess its own need for protective measures, and implement where necessary, whether under professional advice or not, including, but not limited to, voltage spike protection, sufficient and adequate grounding as per the National Electric Code, computer equipment insurance, virus detection and elimination software, security and system administration policies, and to obtain such protection as it sees fit and not to make any claims against Spectra, its users or faculty, for the loss or damage to their equipment or data.

EQUIPMENT ABANDONMENT: Any equipment repaired at Spectra offices and not picked up within thirty (30) days after we notify Client by phone or via your answering service machine will be treated as abandoned equipment. Client agrees to hold Spectra harmless for any damage or claim for the abandoned equipment. Client agrees that any and all unpaid charges are still Client's responsibility.

PATENT AND COPYRIGHT INDEMNITY: Client will defend, at its own expense, any action brought against Spectra to the extent it is based on a claim that the software and equipment used by Client infringes on United States patent, copyright or other proprietary right of a third party. Client will pay any costs, damages or attorney fees finally awarded against Spectra in such action which are attributable to such claim, provided Client is notified in writing of such claim, may control the defense and/or settlement of such claim, and is provided with all requested assistance, information and authority. Spectra shall have no liability for any claim of patent, copyright or trade secret infringement based on Client's use of software and equipment in any form.

IF ANY APPLICABLE AUTHORITY HOLDS ANY PORTION OF THIS SECTION TO BE UNENFORCEABLE, THEN THE SPECTRA PARTIES' LIABILITY WILL BE LIMITED TO THE FULLEST POSSIBLE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

EXCLUSIVE REMEDY: Spectra's total liability under this agreement for any reason shall be limited to the actual fees you have paid Spectra, if any, for the IT Support service within the three month period preceding the event forming the basis of the claim, as agreed-upon liquidated damages and not as a penalty. It is intended and expressly agreed that the purpose of the three month preceding period is to set an upper limit to the amount Client may recover and to fix liability of Spectra at a specific sum not to exceed the fees paid to Spectra for the prior three months of IT Support service.

LIMITATION ON TIME TO SUE: Unless otherwise required by law, an action or proceeding by Client to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this agreement or by law with respect to Spectra's IT Support services must be commenced within one year after the cause of action accrues.

Spectra shall not reproduce or copy any of the Client's confidential information except as permitted by Client and any reproductions or copies allowed to be made by Client shall not be removed from Client's premises except as permitted by Client.

Should this agreement be terminated for any reason or Client notify or be deemed to notify Spectra that it wishes to have the confidential information returned to it, Spectra agrees, within thirty (30) days of such termination to return all confidential information that it has received from Client under this agreement.

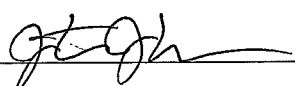

ATTORNEY'S FEES: If either party commences an action against the other party to enforce the provisions of this agreement or to collect any amounts owing pursuant to this agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the losing party, all attorney's fees and costs incurred. In the event of legal action arising out of or related to this agreement, including claims for non-payment of amounts owed hereunder, Duchesne County, Utah shall be the exclusive jurisdiction and legal venue for said action and this agreement shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Utah.

CHANGES: SPECTRA RESERVES THE RIGHT TO CHANGE ITS FEES, RATES, AND CHARGES, AT ANY TIME WITH OR WITHOUT NOTICE. If Spectra does give notice, it may be provided on Client's monthly bill, as a bill insert, email, or other communication. If client determines that a change in IT Support services is unacceptable, it may terminate service. However, if Client continues to receive IT Support services after the change, this will constitute its acceptance of the change.

INVALIDITY: If any provisions of this agreement are held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, such shall not invalidate the remaining provisions hereof.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This agreement supersedes any previous agreements or discussions, verbal or written. This is the entire agreement and can only be modified by a written agreement signed by both parties.
